AGENDA TOPICS

1. Discuss prior business.
2. Volunteers for next year's L.A. Leatherweek (March 2015)
3. WILL 2015
4. LAgoL baked goods sale fundraisers
5. Sponsor LAgoL
6. Webinars for out-of-town members

Agenda Action items

1. Prior business discussed:
 - a. Leather HEAT – we are responsible for the hospitality suite. We need someone in charge of scheduling volunteers for the suite (4 hours gets you a $30 discount). We also need a hospitality event coordinator. The meet and greet will be two hours long.
 - i. Angie will be the organizer for the hospitality suite volunteers.
 - ii. Carolynne will host the suite and set up a menu, coordinate the food, etc.
 - b. Bren is collecting men's socks, bath supplies, also women's bath supplies to take to shelters
 - c. LAgoL Pride flag – Bren will order one for $50.
 - d. Shelly has the patch for the leather quilt and will send it.
 - e. Election of new Vice President
2. For Los Angeles Leatherweek, we need to be heavily involved next year. It occurs from 3/22 – 3/29/15. Bren is heading the silent auction. We need people to man the table for the auction (probably on 3/28/15).

Agenda Action items

3. We discussed putting an ad in the program for next year's WILL.
4. Angie will post and coordinate the bake sales on 11/8 and 12/13. Kinky bake sale held at the Market Parties! Persefonie will ask the Threshold board if we can have a box for the donated goods to be kept at Threshold. We will meet on Sunday 12/7 from 12-3pm to stuff the stockings and hand them out on 12/20 downtown. Items to collect are soap, wipes, socks, shampoos, feminine products, snacks, etc.
5. Let's add a "sponsor LAgoL" link to our website.
6. We discussed holding webinars to include girls that are out of the area who'd like to participate in our meetings. Danielle will set up one for the San Diego girls.

Notes/Misc.

Bren gave Angie a large member patch.

Meeting was adjourned at 5:30 p.m.
